Miss Patrick Almond Marries C. A. Smith

Miss Patrick Ellen Almond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie W. Almond of Appomattox, and Charles Alexander Smith, son, of Mr. and Mrs. Alex James Smith of Phenix, were married Friday evening at 8 o'clock at New Hope Baptist Church.

The Rev. Marvin E. Jacobs performed the double ring ceremony before an alter of branched palm leaves and ferns interspersed with candelabra and centered with a basket arrangement of gladioli and snapdragons.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a floor length gown of silk organza and Chantilly lace over taffeta. The form fitting bodice of lace was fashioned with scalloped neckline accented with pearls. Lace appliques were scattered over the full skirt of silk organza which flowed into a chapel train. Her finger tip veil hung from a cap of seeded pearls and she carried a white prayer book topped with an orchid.

Mrs. Henry Doss of Appomattox was honor attendant. Her dress of blue dotted nylon swiss was styled with rounded neckline similar to that of the bride and a cummerbund set off the waistline. She wore a headpiece of blue roses and carried a bouquet of Better Times Roses.

Mrs. Kindley Huff of Appomattox and Miss Francis Phelps of Lynchburg were honor attendants. They wore pink frosted and yellow frosted nylon dresses styled like that of the honor attendant. Mrs. Huff carried a bouquet of pink carnations and Miss Phelps, a bouquet of yellow.

Nancy Carol Smith of Brookneal, wearing a white dress, was flower girl and Dennis Doss of Appomattox, was ring bearer.

Henry Doss of Appomattox was best man and ushers were Paul Smith of Brookneal, brother of the bridegroom; David Austin and Reubin Almond, brother of the bride, both of Appomattox, and Benny Hamlett of Brookneal.

For a southern wedding trip the bride changed to a beige suit with matching accessories, adding the orchid from her prayer book.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith will live in Appomattox.
